

iNSIDEoUT wishes to thank Triangle Community Works, for serving as our fiscal sponsor, Triangle PFLAG, for sponsoring the Banquet, and all of those who have made iNSIDEoUT possible through generous financial contributions. We love our sponsors!

iNSIDEoUT

Second Annual Banquet and Gaiety
May 19, 2007

Greetings!

Welcome to the Second Annual iNSIDEoUT Banquet and Gaiety! We are so excited to be celebrating the outstanding accomplishments of youth in the Triangle, and the adults who have supported us as we work to create important changes in our schools and beyond. The activism happening within the Gay-Straight Alliance movement is radical and awesome. Thank you for joining us as we honor some extraordinary young people and their adult allies!

Much love,
iNSIDEoUT

iNSIDEoUT Board and Advisors:

Youth Board:

Ashleigh Pippin
Lena Eckert-Erdheim
Brittany McVeigh
Joanna Carmel

Adult Advisors:

Robert Wells
Laurie Wolf
Amy Glaser

iNSIDEoUT Adult Awards:

calvary united methodist church: for providing space for iNSIDEoUT events, taking an interest in the organization's activities, and for their members' financial contributions to lgbtq-a youth organizing.

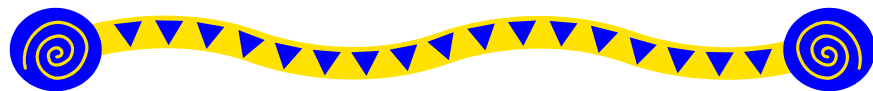

wake county gsa booster club: for providing an additional outlet for fun and community for lgbtq-a youth in the triangle.

equality north carolina: for mobilizing support for safe schools legislation at the statewide level.

queeryouthtakeoverncc: for participating in the vamanos retreat, and for being important to sustaining a diverse group of lgbtq-a youth activists in the triangle.

st. marks episcopal church: for taking the initiative to host this year's alternative prom.

triangle community works: for serving as iNSIDEoUT's fiscal sponsor.

iNSIDEoUT Youth Awards:

gsa's started this year

inclusive activism: to Spectrum, the GSA at the NC School of Science and Math, for their activism on Transgender Day of Remembrance, and their ability to mobilize support from lgbtq allies.

up and coming (out): to the Chapel Hill High School GSA for coming a long way, with teacher trainings, movie nights, and a community presence.

dodging stereotypes: to the Middle Creek High School GSA for dodging stereotypes by organizing (and winning!) dodge ball tournaments against other clubs.

hot tee's: to the GSA at East Chapel Hill High School for designing yet another awesome t-shirt.

terrific training: to the Durham School of the Arts GSA for educating teachers about lgbtq-a issues.

standing your ground: to Wakefield High School's GSA for standing up to a difficult administration, getting on school announcements and becoming a school sponsored club.

commendable communication: to Bryt Lambert and Shannon Rogers for having extraordinary potential and maintaining excellent communication even though they weren't on the iNSIDEoUT board.

gay angels: to Leesville Road High School's GSA for participating in Two Angels Off a Tree, providing holiday gifts for children who can't afford them.

drop on in: to the youth organizing Queer Youth Drop-In hours at Internationalist Bookstore every Friday evening from 5-8pm, for running fantastic stuff, most notably a QYDI Olympics with frisbees and more.

super social: to the GSA at Southeast Raleigh High School for organizing a second, very large, successful picnic.

represent! to the largest GSA in attendance at the Second Annual iNSIDEoUT Banquet and Gaiety.

iNSIDEoUT board: to the iNSIDEoUT board of 06-07, for being brilliant and exceptionally talented and creative, and for running a youth-led organization during its first full year in existence.

www.iNSIDEoUT180.org
Contact: iNSIDEoUT180@gmail.com